Description

19th-century Biedermeier console table, crafted from solid walnut and veneered with burl walnut, embellished with refined maple inlays and delicate gold leaf decorations. The structure features harmonious and balanced lines, typical of the Biedermeier style, with elegantly shaped arched legs and gilded finials that lend solidity and refinement to the piece. The console is accompanied by a perfectly matching, framed period mirror that further enhances the piece's aesthetic appeal. A piece of furniture of great charm and artisanal quality, ideal for classic settings or to create a refined contrast in contemporary interiors.
