Description

Refined ensemble comprising a finely embossed copper handwash basin, embellished with a hand-forged and re-hammered wrought iron stand. The stand features three legs with a central stand, characterized by curved lines and curlicue decorations that lend great elegance. The basin is round in shape, decorated with rib-shaped motifs and geometric patterns both inside and out. This exquisitely refined ensemble adds a touch of class and antiquity to any room. 17th-century Tuscan craftsmanship.
