Description

Map of NAMUR, LIEGE, DINANT, CINEY, DURBUY,...Beautiful antique map executed in the 18th century by Jean-Baptiste de Bouge (1757-1833), a renowned Brussels printer-librarian, in collaboration with engraver Jeanne Maillart. Original cartographic work, not a reproduction. The map features a detailed hydrographic and road network, administrative divisions and major cities of the former Southern Netherlands (now Belgium), Luxembourg and the United Provinces (now Holland) and Northern France, bearing witness to the political geography of Northern Europe. Ideal for deco or history buffs. Jean-Baptiste de Bouge was a major figure in cartographic publishing in Brussels under the Ancien Régime. His productions, often produced in partnership with specialized engravers, feature
