J-b De Bouge (1757-1833) & Jeanne Maillart (xviii Th). Map Netherlands Austria Picardy

85 EUR

Signature : Jeanne Cathérine Maillart (XVIIIème)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 43 cm

Height : 37 cm

Description

Map of Austrian Netherlands, Picardy and summary of towns, villages in each Provinces. Jean-Baptiste de Bouge & Jeanne Maillart, 18th centuryBeautiful antique map ,Austrian Netherlands, Picardy and summary of towns, villages in each Provincesexecuted in the 18th century by Jean-Baptiste de Bouge (1757-1833), renowned Brussels printer-librarian, in collaboration with engraver Jeanne Maillart. Original cartographic work, not a reproduction.The map features a detailed hydrographic and road network, administrative divisions and major cities, testifying to the political geography of Northern Europe.Ideal for deco or history buffs.Jean-Baptiste de Bougewas a major figure in cartographic publishing in Brussels under the Ancien Régime. His

Dealer

1920'S

Ceramics, Sculptures, 20th century graphic art, curiosities and collections

Mobile : +32479174721

rue de la grotte

Jeneffe 5370

productions, often produced in partnership with specialized engravers, feature in the collections of major European heritage institutions.Era: XVIIIth century Authors/engravers: J.-B. de Bouge & Jeanne Maillart (rare female figure in 18th-century cartographic engraving)Format : 43 × 37 cm Medium : Old laid paper, copperplate engraving Condition : Slight traces of wear inherent to age, even patina. Solid paper, no tears. Document whole, untrimmed.Keywords: early cartography, historic Belgium, Luxembourg, Netherlands, 18th century, De Bouge, copperplate engravingDelivery: Belgium:6.10 Eur.Luxembourg, Germany, Netherlands, France : 17 Eur.Secure delivery in cardboard tube.