

J-b De Bouge (1757-1833) & Jeanne Maillart (xviii Th). Map Of Louvain,tirlemont,diest,liege,

100 EUR

Signature : Jeanne Cathérine Maillart (XVIIIème)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 43 cm

Height : 37 cm

Description

Map of the surroundings of Louvain, Tirlemont, Diest, Gembloux, Liège, Huy (Huy), Maestricht,.....Jean-Baptiste de Bouge & Jeanne Maillart, 18th century Beautiful antique (colored) map depicting the surroundings of Louvain, Tirlemont, Diest, Gembloux, Liège, Huy (Huy), Maestricht,... executed in the 18th century by Jean-Baptiste de Bouge (1757-1833), a renowned Brussels printer and bookseller, in collaboration with the engraver Jeanne Maillart. Original cartographic work, not a reproduction. The map features a detailed hydrographic and road network, administrative divisions and major cities, testifying to the political geography of Northern Europe. Ideal for deco or history buffs. Jean-Baptiste de Bouge was a major figure in cartographic publishing in Brussels under the

Dealer

1920'S

Ceramics, Sculptures, 20th century graphic art, curiosities and collections

Mobile : +32479174721

rue de la grotte

Jeneffe 5370

Ancien Régime. His productions, often produced in partnership with specialized engravers, feature in the collections of major European heritage institutions. Era: XVIIIth century
Authors/engravers: J.-B. de Bouge & Jeanne Maillart (rare female figure in 18th-century cartographic engraving) Format : 43 × 37 cm
Medium : Old laid paper, copperplate engraving
Condition : Slight traces of wear inherent to age, even patina. Solid paper, no tears. Document whole, untrimmed. Keywords: early cartography, historic Belgium, Luxembourg, Netherlands, 18th century, De Bouge, copperplate engraving Delivery: Belgium:6.10
Eur. Luxembourg, Germany, Netherlands, France : 17 Eur. Secure delivery in cardboard tube.