Description

Japanese patinated bronze vase with relief decoration of cranes and lakescape - Meiji period (1868-1912) Important bronze vase with dark brown patina, of baluster form with flared neck, richly decorated with applied relief decoration. The decoration depicts cranes in flight and posed, evolving in a watery landscape with vegetation, treated with a very fine sense of movement and detail. The cranes, a symbol of longevity and happiness in Japan, are rendered here with a fine quality of chasing and modeling. The base bears a molded Japanese stamp, attesting to workshop production during the Meiji period. Dimensions: Height: 36 cm Width: 18 cm Depth: 36 cm Condition: Good overall condition: Beautiful old patina some minor wear and rubbings light surface irregularities
