

J-b De Bouge (1757-1833) & Jeanne Maillart (xviii Th). Map Of Nieuport,courtrai,lille,furnes

100 EUR

Signature : Jeanne Cathérine Maillart (XVIIIème)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Length : 43 cm

Height : 37 cm

Description

Map of the surroundings of Nieuport, Furnes, Courtrai, Menin, Dunkerke, Gravelines, Lille, Armentière, Cassel,... Jean-Baptiste de Bouge & Jeanne Maillart, 18th century Beautiful antique (colored) map depicting the surroundings of Nieuport, Furnes, Courtrai, Menin, Dunkerke, Gravelines, Lille, Armentière, Cassel,... executed in the 18th century by Jean-Baptiste de Bouge (1757-1833), a renowned Brussels printer and bookseller, in collaboration with the engraver Jeanne Maillart. Original cartographic work, not a reproduction. The map features a detailed hydrographic and road network, administrative divisions and major cities, testifying to the political geography of Northern Europe. Ideal for deco or history buffs. Jean-Baptiste de Bouge was a major figure in cartographic publishing in

Dealer

1920'S

Ceramics, Sculptures, 20th century graphic art, curiosities and collections

Mobile : +32479174721

rue de la grotte

Jeneffe 5370

Brussels under the Ancien Régime. His productions, often produced in partnership with specialized engravers, feature in the collections of major European heritage institutions. Era: XVIIIth century Authors/engravers: J.-B. de Bouge & Jeanne Maillart (rare female figure in 18th-century cartographic engraving) Format : 43 × 37 cm Medium : Old laid paper, copperplate engraving Condition : Slight traces of wear inherent to age, even patina. Solid paper, no tears. Document whole, untrimmed. Keywords: early cartography, historic Belgium, Luxembourg, Netherlands, 18th century, De Bouge, copperplate engraving Delivery: Belgium:6.10 Eur. Luxembourg, Germany, Netherlands, France : 17 Eur. Secure delivery in cardboard tube.