

J-b De Bouge (1757-1833) & Jeanne Maillart (xviii Th). Carte De Buremonde,venlo,guerldes,wezel

50 EUR

Signature : Jeanne Cathérine Maillart (XVIIIème)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Width : 43 cm

Height : 37 cm

Description

Map of the environs of Ruremonde, Venlo, Gueldres, Wezel, Duseldorf,...Jean-Baptiste de Bouge & Jeanne Maillart, 18th century Beautiful antique (colored) map depicting the environs of Ruremonde, Venlo, Gueldres, Wezel, Duseldorf.,executed in the 18th century by Jean-Baptiste de Bouge (1757-1833), a renowned Brussels printer and bookseller, in collaboration with the engraver Jeanne Maillart. Original cartographic work, not a reproduction. The map features a detailed hydrographic and road network, administrative divisions and major cities, testifying to the political geography of Northern Europe. Ideal for deco or history buffs. Jean-Baptiste de Bouge was a major figure in cartographic publishing in Brussels under the Ancien Régime. His productions, often produced

Dealer

1920'S

Ceramics, Sculptures, 20th century graphic art, curiosities and collections

Mobile : +32479174721

rue de la grotte

Jeneffe 5370

in partnership with specialized engravers, feature in the collections of major European heritage institutions. Era: XVIIIth century

Authors/engravers: J.-B. de Bouge & Jeanne

Maillart (rare female figure in 18th-century cartographic engraving) Format : 43 × 37 cm

Support : Old laid paper, copperplate engraving

Condition : Slight traces of wear inherent to age, even patina. Solid paper, tears in left margin (not visible in frame). Keywords: antique cartography, historic Belgium, Luxembourg, Netherlands, 18th century, De Bouge, copperplate engraving Delivery: Belgium: 6.10

Eur. Luxembourg, Germany, Netherlands, France

: 17 Eur. Secure delivery in cardboard tube.