Description

Beautiful Louis-Philippe period mirror in carved, stuccoed and gilded wood, with a "boudin" profile, adorned with an elegant décor of finely worked ribbon twists and foliage. The inner rim is underlined by a string of pearls, characteristic of French production in the mid-19th century. The mirror is in original mercury glass, featuring a two-part sheen. There are slight alterations and nuances in the reflection, typical of this type of antique manufacture, bringing authentic charm and incomparable depth. The mirror is made of original mercury glass, featuring a two-part tain. The reverse side is made of antique boards, attesting to traditional assembly. Antique leaf gilding, with a beautiful patina and natural wear that reinforce the overall character. Dimensions: Height: 165 cm Width: 88.5
