Description

Extending table in solid oiled elm, Vendée collection, by Roland Hauesler for REGAIN 1970. 1 support leg folds under the table. Dovetail assembly, a guarantee of quality and solidity. French furniture maker from the 60s to the 80s, Maison REGAIN IS artisanal excellence. Rather than centralize production in a soulless factory, the house had its pieces made in different workshops across France, ensuring it worked with the best cabinetmakers in each specialty. If brand prevailed over ego, one name deserves to be remembered: Roland Haeusler. It was he who designed the majority of those architectural lines, massive yet so gentle, that characterize the Regain style. Good overall condition (slight traces of use) Length 150 x 90 cm + 2 extensions of 50 cm each, i.e. 250 cm in total Height 73 cm (You
