Description

A pair of porcelain vases with a "bleu céleste" blue background, inspired by the work of the famous Manufacture nationale de Sèvres. The vases feature a slender, egg-shaped body, a wide fluted neck, and two elegant gilded handles. The decoration is embellished with rich gilding and large hand-painted oval medallions featuring neoclassical mythological scenes, depicting classical figures in landscapes. The base and upper section are adorned with gilded architectural and ornamental motifs, executed with care and refinement. The overall effect is highly decorative, typical of ceremonial vases intended for formal settings. Period: 18th-19th century Condition: good, with normal signs of age Provenance: France
