Art Deco Bronze On Marble Depicting Chicks And A Frog

950 EUR

Signature : SAINT YVES

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Charming bronze group with shaded brown patina, depicting four lively chicks observing a small frog, a scene full of life and freshness typical of the naturalist aesthetic of the 1920s-1930s. The composition, both playful and elegant, rests on a rectangular base of veined black marble, offering a refined contrast with the warmth of the bronze. The treatment of volumes is stylized with precision in the rendering of feathers and attitudes. Work signed Saint Yves, a sculptor active during the Art Deco period, appreciated for his decorative animal subjects. Features: Era: Art Deco, circa 1920-1930 Materials: patinated bronze and marble base Signature: "Saint Yves" Subject: animal scene (chicks and frog) Condition: very good
