PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Important Louis XV Period Sciban Commode In Marquetry.

3 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marquetry

Description

Important Dutch Louis XV period sciban galbée commode, in marquetry, dating from the XVIIIth century.This piece of furniture is distinguished by its rich inlaid decoration with floral motifs and scrolls, deployed throughout the front as well as on the flap, with a symmetrical composition of great finesse.The flap reveals a remarkable interior comprising:several small curved side drawers, also inlaida leather-wrapped writing aprona small central leaf decoratedwith numerous storage compartmentsThe front features three large drawers on the waist, adorned with antique bronze (keyways and handles).The piece rests on cambered legs, joined by a moving crosspiece embellished with important central carved decoration, typical of the Louis XV style.Very fine warm patina of the wood and well-preserved

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

marquetry, offering a high-quality decorative rendering.CharacteristicEra: 18th centuryStyle: Louis XVorigin: hollandeType : commode scribanWood:precious woodDecor: Floral inlay and scrollsOrnamentation: Antique bronzesInterior: Drawers, lockers, writing flapMounting: Traditional peggedDimensionsHeight: 114 cmWidth: 139 cmDepth: 62 cmConditionVery good overall condition.To note:Normal wear consistent with ageSound structure, stable furniture, well-preserved marquetry.ObservationsElegant and decorative piece, typical of 18th-century European furniture, ideal for a classical interior or study.Refined craftsmanship, with quality of marquetry superior to the average desk of this type.