Description

Proposed by the Robert Four manufacture in Aubusson, this elegant decorative tapestry entitled "Bord de l'eau" follows in the great tradition of greenery inspired by ancient models. The rich, balanced composition unfolds a lush landscape enlivened by birds and abundant vegetation, evoking medieval and Renaissance tapestries. The whole is framed by a decorative floral border, reinforcing its classic, timeless character. Made using a silkscreen process on wool through and through, this piece faithfully recaptures the aesthetics of antique tapestries while offering excellent durability and decorative quality. It bears its original Robert Four manufacture label on the reverse, with indications of the model (15th century origin), work number and dimensions, as well as a handwritten
