Superb large oil on canvas by Nguyen Mai Thu, a Vietnamese artist active during the French colonization of Vietnam / Indochina (1935-1954). In very good condition, an oil on canvas reviewed, cleaned and re-varnished by a Museum-approved restoration workshop, and re-tensioned on a new frame. Usual monogrammed signature lower right (see photo). Beautiful dimensions; 82 cm high x 112 cm wide with frame, 70 cm x 100 without. "Probably a former student of the Beaux-Arts de l'Indochine preparatory classes" (Cf Lynda Trouvé). Nguyen Mai Thu developed many different themes, especially those of war and daily life, particularly the life of the TAV ethnic group. A book on this artist was recently published "Nguyen Thu - The Way of the East" by Tira Vanichtheeranont.
