Description

Profile study of a man with a scarf tied on his head, Oil on canvas in very good condition, French school late 19th century. Frame 47x55 cm. Oil on canvas depicting a young man seen in profile, facing right, wearing a scarf. The model is treated as a nude bust, in a warm light highlighting the volumes of the face and neck. Beautiful academic study made from a live model, characteristic of art school teaching at the end of the 19th century. It may also be a study for a character of a larger composition.
