Description

Elegant pair of oval-format oils on canvas, marouflaged on panel, depicting rich bouquets of flowers arranged in Medici-style vases. These decorative compositions are in the tradition of 17th-century Flemish- and Dutch-inspired still lifes: floral abundance, warm, contrasting palette, staged on entablature with landscape background. The pictorial workmanship and treatment of light situate the execution at the end of the 19th century, in a historicist taste then in great demand. These are probably decorative elements (woodwork, overdoors or wall panels) that were later replaced and presented as oval paintings. The gilded wood frames are modern. A decorative pair with a beautiful presence, ideal for symmetrical hanging or classic decor. Dimensions: 46.5 × 40 cm (each) Condition:
