Description

White earthenware sculpture of a young bather holding a child. Height 34 cm. Base dimensions 14 x 9 cm. Work by the Sèvres MF ceramics workshops, founded by two renowned French ceramists, Jean Faverot and Jean Mazeaud, the latter having previously worked as a modeler at the Manufacture Nationale de Sèvres. These Sèvres-based workshops were active between 1946 and 1960. They produced ceramic pieces often inspired by Art Deco, like our sculpture. Bearing the mark "Ateliers de céramique mf" under the base. Very good condition.
