Georges Lefebvre (1887-1962)

6 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Oil painting

Width : 46

Height : 33

Description

Georges Lefebvre (1887-1962) - Animated landscape in the Impressionist tasteCharming oil on canvas by Georges Lefebvre, a Belgian painter born in 1887 and died in 1962, whose works have appeared regularly at public sales for several decades.The painting depicts a lively countryside landscape, crossed by a meandering stream amid flowering meadows. The composition, perfectly balanced, opens onto a delicately treated tree-lined horizon. This is a seductive ensemble, with a strong sense of harmony.The overall effect is seductive in its freshness and luminosity, with a subtle palette punctuated by red and white touches enlivening the vegetation. The brushstroke is free and slightly impastoed, translating a beautiful sensitivity to light and atmospheric effects.This work is part of the early

Dealer

GALERIE DE CICCO MONACO
Empire
Tel : 0033 (0)6 08 75 41 17

La Villa, 19 Galerie Charles III
Monaco 98000

20th-century landscape tradition, directly inspired by the Impressionist movement and its post-impressionist extensions, much appreciated for its spontaneity and decorative power.Genuine work, signed lower right.A light cleaning accompanied by a colorless varnish has been carried out, revealing all the depth of the colors and restoring the canvas to its natural brilliance.About the artist:Georges Lefebvre is a Belgian painter active in the first half of the 20th century. His works, mainly landscapes and figurative scenes, have appeared at public sales on several occasions, notably at Sotheby's from 1996, up to recent sales in 2023. He is appreciated for the decorative quality of his compositions and his sensitive approach to landscape.Dimensions:Width: 46 cmHeight: 33 cmCondition:Very good condition.Artwork sold unframed, allowing for custom framing to suit your interior. It's a very good condition.To note:High-quality decorative work, rare on the market, ideal for lovers of Impressionist landscapes and atmospheres.It will fit perfectly into an elegant, classic or contemporary interior.