Description

A timeless design masterpiece The enduring charm of the 1970s comes alive in this extraordinary table by Maison Charles. Without a doubt, owning a piece of this caliber elevates the aesthetic of any home. The structure stands out for the innate elegance of the horses, crafted entirely from bronze, which are gracefully supported by a refined central base, also made of solid bronze. Furthermore, the attention to detail is evident in the brass perimeter base that frames the entire piece with extreme precision. Structural quality and luxurious details In addition to its sculptural beauty, the table offers superior functionality thanks to its double transparent glass top. Moreover, its generous dimensions of 85x140 cm make it perfect as a centerpiece for a formal living room. Despite the passage of
