Delft . First Half Of The XVIIIe. Plate Decorated With Country Scene

180 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 26 cm

Description

Delft's earthenware makers produced many designs, but this is one of the most sought-after. The plate, in an intense blue monochrome, depicts a country scene, peasants approaching a village probably carrying things of their own making for sale. If there is a chip (visible on photo, the price takes this detail into account) the plate is in very good condition, the decor perfect, no fel, and sounds clear.
