Description

A lovely end of a sofa on all sides, this quality Louis XV-style marquetry coffee table from the first half of the 20th century is a fine work from the faubourg and offers a wide range of possibilities, from the living room as the end of a sofa to the bedroom as a bedside table, as in an entrance hall. Practical and elegant, in keeping with the style of fine 18th-century furniture, with its two top shelves and a spacer between the curved legs, the top shelf bordered by a doucine and a generous drawer in the waistband concealed without a crossbar, the richness of the rosewood, satinwood and lemonwood essences sets the tone for a piece of furniture that's functional and beautifully decorated, easy to place and move as you please, see photo details...
