Description

Beautiful original watercolor signed Alma, an artist active in the Basque country at the end of the 20th century, depicting a typical view of Saint-Jean-de-Luz. The work finely illustrates the famous Maison des Trois Canons, located on rue Mazarin, in a bright, shady atmosphere characteristic of Luzian alleyways. The treatment is lively and masterful, blending a lively line with subtle washes, revealing a beautiful sensitivity in the rendering of architecture and foliage. This composition, both precise and spontaneous, is in the tradition of regional watercolorists committed to highlighting Basque heritage. Signed lower right, titled and dated on the back "ALMA 1997". Dry stamp "Alma" present on the passe-partout, guaranteeing the authenticity of the work. Dimensions: Sight : 40 x 24 cm Framed
