Description

Elegant original watercolor signed ALMA, depicting the prestigious Château de Pau, an emblematic Béarn landmark steeped in history.Here, the artist offers a refined and sensitive vision of the edifice, subtly staged behind powerful tree trunks that structure the composition and bring depth and balance to the whole.The mastery of the medium is remarkable: the line, both free and precise, dialogues with delicate washes in which shades of green, ochre and grey aptly render the light and atmosphere of the place. The whole evokes the spirit of artists' travel journals, between architectural observation and poetic interpretation.The work is signed lower right and bears a handwritten annotation on the reverse stating:"OEuvre originale du Peintre - Le château de Pau (Béarn)", accompanied by the
