Description

French Directoire chest of drawers from the 1920s in mahogany, with 4 drawers and marble top. Elegant French Directoire-style chest of drawers from the 1920s, embodying Parisian refinement and the fine craftsmanship of early 20th-century French furniture. Made of solid mahogany, it features four large drawers with brass handles, offering both a sober and refined aesthetic as well as beautiful storage space. Its richly veined marble top adds a luxurious touch and perfectly enhances the natural warmth of mahogany. This chest of drawers will find just as much place in a classic interior as in a more contemporary decor, as a strong, elegant piece. The Directoire style, renowned for its clean lines, geometric sobriety and understated elegance, is harmonized here with the nobility of
