Description

Beautiful hand-knotted Afghan Loribaft rug, made from natural wool and dyed in a warm palette of earthy colors.This piece features traditional tribal motifs organized in horizontal bands, creating a rich, narrative composition characteristic of Loribaft weaving. Geometric symbols, stylized animal forms and color variations bring depth, authenticity and character to the ensemble. His textured velvet is the perfect complement to the Loribaft weave.Its textured velvet, combined with subtle abrash effects, testifies to the charm of craftsmanship and the beauty of natural dyes. This rug will find a perfect place in a modern, rustic, bohemian or eclectic interior, but also with a collector of tribal rugs.Details:Origin: AfghanistanType: Loribaft rugsTechnique: knotted / hand-wovenMaterial:
