Description

Superb contemporary hand-knotted Afghan rug, featuring a vibrant field with abrash effect, composed of fine multicolored linear striations. Made from wool, this rug combines Art Deco-inspired graphic sobriety with organic, natural color transitions. Its rich palette, blending warm earth tones, blues, reds, shades of gold, olive, anthracite and soft neutrals, creates a lively, painterly surface. It's a rug that's a joy to wear. All-over linear pattern adds depth, movement and modernity, while retaining the authentic charm of hand-woven craftsmanship. This piece will suit a contemporary interior, a spacious living room, a loft, a designer office or a decoration with modern Art Deco accents. Details: Origin: Afghanistan Style: Art Deco / modern Abrashi Technique: traditional
