

Sculptural Trompe-l'oeil Solid Wood "nut On Skis" Bottle Holder, 1970s.

680 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 30 cm

Height : 23 cm

Depth : 14 cm

Description

This astonishing bottle holder is a perfect testament to the playful and quirky spirit of 1970s design. Borrowing both from the Pop Art movement (with its concept of an oversized industrial object) and the "Chalet" style, this transformation of a giant nut into a bar accessory is as amusing as it is aesthetic. Measuring 30 cm in length, the object stands out with its meticulously turned wood craftsmanship. The main body takes the shape of a large hexagonal nut pierced by a fully functional threaded wooden bolt. This ingenious mechanism clamps down on the neck of a wine bottle. The entire piece rests and finds its perfect balance on two beautiful blades of curved metal (brass or copper) reminiscent of old alpine skis. The warm grain of the wood contrasts beautifully with the patina of

Dealer

BARROIS Antiques

20th century Antiques and decorative pieces

Tel : 06 12 37 55 55

Mobile : 06 12 37 55 55

53 rue du Vieux four

Marcq-en-Baroeul 59700

the metal. Offered in very good vintage condition, this unusual bar accessory boasts a warm patina. It is an ideal curiosity piece to enliven a dining table, decorate a "mountain cabin" inspired interior, or offer as a unique and sophisticated gift to a wine enthusiast. Click Here to see this piece directly on Our Website