Description

Superb Belgian Art Deco sideboard from the 1930s, elegantly illustrating the refinement, geometry and craftsmanship characteristic of this period.This three-door sideboard is crafted in walnut burl, with beautiful golden-brown shades and delicate marquetry details. Its design combines sober architectural lines with the natural richness of the wood grain, creating a harmonious balance between sophistication and functionality.The piece is accompanied by a large beveled mirror at the top, bringing light and depth to a dining, living or entry space. The central door features an elegant triangular glass insert, a motif typical of the Art Deco aesthetic, reinforcing the furniture's decorative character. The chrome handles on the front and back of the cabinet are designed to give the cabinet a distinctive
