Description

An elegant sculpture depicting the Pietà, inspired by Michelangelo's famous masterpiece housed in St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican. The work stands out for the quality of its craftsmanship and the balance of its proportions, with an accurate rendering of the drapery and anatomical details that lend depth and harmony to the whole. The composition sensitively echoes the Renaissance model, creating a strong visual impact without sacrificing elegance and restraint. The surface features a natural patina that enhances the material and accentuates its charm over time. Signed on the lower right "Dal Torrione", it represents a work of quality inspired by the great Italian sculptural tradition. An object of remarkable presence, ideal both as a prominent decorative element and for those seeking an
