

Gilt Bronze Vase Clock Circa 1820

2 500 EUR

Signature : Charles

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Height : 40 cm

Description

Early 19th-century mercury gilt bronze vase clock with wheat ears, matte effect and agate burnishing. Vase on a pedestal base with applied palmettes. The escutcheon-shaped body of the vase is embellished with rosettes, crowns and a butterfly. Two handles stand out laterally from a radiating decoration simulating a sun. The handles end in a scroll between the ears of wheat that adorn the pendulum at damping. The clock stands on 4 "ball" feet. The movement is an hour and half-hour chime. The white enamel dial is signed "Charles à Orléans". The hands are in blued steel. Height 40 cm. Epoque empire début XIX vers 1815. Estant : the clock is in exceptional condition. The mercury gilding is thick and original without the slightest wear. The movement is in good working order. Shipping: for

Dealer

Clocks and fine arts

horlogerie et bronze doré

Mobile : 0662442449

14 chemin de brulefoin

Besançon 25000

all shipments, please ask us for a quote, indicating the city and country of destination. We will provide highly secure packaging. You will benefit from our negotiated professional rates.