Description

This 19th-century brooch is made of mother-of-pearl with a pendant featuring a copper "tornese" at its center. The coin depicts the king's head and the inscription "FRANCISCVS I D G REGNI VTR SIC ET HIER REX". Francis I of Bourbon reigned from 1825 to 1830. The pendant can also be removed from the brooch and worn as a necklace. Condition as shown in the photos. I'm also on Instagram "mercantedarteroma".
