Description

Pretty Schneider art-deco vase with double technique, "marble" effect and "superimposition".Piece for amateurs. Pretty cornet shape on a piedouche with a small ball at the base. Pretty colors with this marble effect at the base (referred to as marbrine at Schneider) and a shade of apple green at the top. This difference is called "superposition". Note in the last photo pieces with the same decoration, no doubt about the origin.Elegant, perfect, circa 1925.31 cm high and 23 cm in diameter.Superb art-deco vase, beautiful colors and brilliance.
