Description

Ladies' watch by POIRAY, "Ma Première" model in its Mini ladies' format. The Poiray Mini is an even more contemporary, contemporary and feminine version of this iconic Poiray model created in 1987. "Ma Première", with its refined and transgenerational aesthetic, can refer to the first watch a woman may receive in her life...but it also undoubtedly symbolizes the history of the model, as this watch was the very first horological creation of the Poiray house, known until then for its purely jewelry production. In steel, it is mounted here on a special rice-grain steel bracelet. Unlike the larger models, this one doesn't interchange. Here, the watch retains its "metal" aesthetic that makes it both a watch and a piece of jewelry. In order to preserve the structured gadrooned, straight and alternating lines, the watch's crown has been placed and concealed below the case, recessed so as not to suspect its presence when worn. These geometric lines give it a clearly Art Deco aesthetic, softened on its angles and by the gadroons. The extremely supple bracelet hugs the wrist with a "second-skin" feel that's very pleasant to wear. It opens with a double folding clasp system. Dating from 2015, this watch is fitted with a quartz movement, and a sapphire crystal. It is duly signed, on its dial, case back and numbered. In perfect condition, its good working order is guaranteed by us for one year (except in case of shock or immersion). The box shows micro-scratches corresponding to a state of use.
