Description

Very fine small oxblood glazed stoneware vase in shades of gray/celadon, workshop work of unknown origin, Asian-inspired, mid-twentieth century vintage, circa 1950-1970. Beautiful, slender ovoid shape ending in a short, flat-lipped neck, while the upper part of the body is animated by a decoration of slightly twisted vertical ribs. Very fine craftsmanship, with a particularly fine, well-mastered paste, approximately 3 to 4mm thick. Stamped under the base with "M" or stylized "W", to be identified. Studio pottery, in the taste of La Borne. Height 18cm, max diameter approx. 11cm. Very good overall condition, no chips or cracks. Approx. 450-500gr.
