Description

An iconic design by Maison Baguès, adorned with parrots and urns: these magnificent sconces were made in Paris in the 1960s. This model has one light higher than the other. We also offer the model with the lights at the same height. Please contact us for more information. The teardrop candles on the socket can be replaced by simple cardboard candles, as you prefer. These sconces have been carefully cleaned and rewired. Like all our fixtures, they simply require standard LED bulbs, identical to those used in a new lamp. We actively look for Maison Baguès pieces and can offer matching chandeliers and table lamps. Visit our website to view our current pieces or contact us. Luxury antique lighting. Since the 1860s, the renowned French luxury lighting workshop Maison Baguès has been creating pieces that are
