Description

This magnificent Maison Baguès table lamp was made in Paris in the 1960s. With its iconic parrot and urn motif, visible on both sides, it is an exceptional light. The height to the top of the upper part, known as the "candle", is 40 cm, and to the top of the parrot's head, it is 31 cm. The width is 29 cm and the base measures 13 cm x 8 cm. We specialize in Maison Baguès lighting, including sconces and chandeliers. Please contact us for information on our current stock. Since the 1860s, the renowned French luxury lighting workshop Maison Baguès has been creating pieces that are highly prized the world over. Each piece is assembled by hand, using traditional techniques.
