Description

A pair of late 19th-century Genoese wall sconces, crafted from carved, gilded, and lacquered wood, featuring rich polychrome floral decoration in the neoclassical style. The structure is embellished with pendants and garlands of cut crystal, arranged on sinuous arms that support multiple light sources. The central body, shaped like a vase, is finely carved and decorated, typical of Ligurian production of the period. Wired and in working condition. Good overall condition, with normal signs of age. Sold as a pair. Dimensions: Height: 70 cm; Width: 45 cm
