Description

Pair of white porcelain vases with floral decoration in relief - 19th century
Charming pair of white porcelain vases, adorned with a rich applied decoration in relief of stylized flowers, foliage and branches. Each vase features an elegant baluster silhouette surmounted by a flared neck, with slender openwork side handles in the form of plant stems. The delicate appliqué decoration evokes typical 19th-century naturalistic floral compositions. The whiteness of the porcelain particularly enhances the modeling work and gives the ensemble a great decorative softness. Dimensions: Height: 31 cm Width: 16 cm Depth: 30 cm Era: 19th century Condition: Good overall condition. To note: some minor wear and soiling Ideal as decoration, as a pair on a mantelpiece or console.
