

18th-century Oil Painting On Wood Depicting The Immaculate Conception

600 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

This painting depicts the Immaculate Conception of Los Venerables (or Immaculate Soul), a famous work by the Spanish painter Bartolomé Esteban Murillo. Artist and Period: 18th-century painting on panel based on the famous painting created by the artist Bartolomé Esteban Murillo around 1678. Subject: The work depicts the Catholic dogma of the Immaculate Conception, with the Virgin Mary standing on a crescent moon surrounded by angels (putti) among the clouds. Original Location: It was commissioned for the Hospital de los Venerables Sacerdotes in Seville. Current Location: Today, the original painting is housed at the Prado Museum in Madrid. FRAME 41.5 X 34.5 CM - PANEL 32 CM X 24 CM

Dealer

Antichita' Taddei Gilberto

arte antiquariato XVII XVIII XIX SECOLO

Tel : +39 3313821818

Mobile : +39 3313821818

via masini 135

Castelfiorentino 50051