Description

Oil on panel painting by Pierre Grisot depicting the portrait of a young woman. Pierre Grisot was a great twentieth-century artist born in Besançon who moved to Paris at an early age, where he was one of the best painters of Parisian women and views of Paris. His ability to paint ravishing female silhouettes gave his works a sensitive charm. He took part in numerous exhibitions around the world in London, Tokyo, Venice and the Middle East. He was an impressionist painter who mastered human sensations. Shipment in France and worldwide by secure, insured parcel with order tracking. Invoice and certificate supplied. Pick-up available at Mas d'Avallrich Montéscot 66200 t 0611142533.
