

Gilt Bronze And Enamel Box, 19th Century

2 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Oval-shaped box in finely chased and gilded bronze, richly adorned with an openwork décor of foliage and foliate scrolls set against a deep green enamel background, conferring great elegance to the ensemble. The lid is centered by a miniature painted medallion, representing an 18th-century-style female portrait, treated in the taste of gallant portraits, surrounded by a delicately worked frame. The body features openwork and enameled reserves on the front and sides, highlighted by finely chased plant frieze ornamentation. A small ornate lock adds to the refinement of the object. Typical 19th-century decorative work in the Louis XV / Louis XVI taste, combining ornamental richness and finesse of execution. Period: 19th century Material: gilded bronze and enamel, painted miniature Style: Louis
