Dutch Cabinet Circa 1800 In Burr Cedar, 2 Doors And 3 Drawers

11 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 205 cm

Height : 210 cm

Depth : 70 cm

Description

Exceptional Dutch cabinet dating from around 1800, a remarkable testament to European craftsmanship of the early 19th century.This high-quality piece of furniture, with two doors and three drawers, is made from thuya oak, a precious species particularly sought after in European cabinetmaking for the richness of its veining and the depth of its warm shades.Its imposing architecture is distinguished by a flowing front with curved projection, refined sculpted decoration and beautiful gilded bronze fittings, handles and keyways, recalling the influences of Dutch Baroque and early Rococo forms still present in interiors of this period.The upper part opens onto a vast storage space, ideal for linen, precious crockery or a collection, while the three lower drawers provide additional

Dealer

Decor Cinquantenaire
Antiquités
Mobile : 00327423171

30 place Saint Pierre
Brussels 1040

functionality while maintaining the majestic balance of the whole.The warm patina of the wood, beautifully preserved, highlights the deep, tormented patterns of the cedar burl, giving this piece of furniture an exceptional presence.Details:Origin: NetherlandsEra: circa 1800Style: Dutch baroque / early rococo influenceMaterial: cedar burl, cedar veneerStructure: 2 doors, 3 drawersOrnament : original gilt bronze fittings and keywaysCondition: excellent antique condition, with slight traces of time consistent with authenticityDimensions: 205 x 70 x 210 cmA piece of great presence, this Dutch armoire seduces as much by the rarity of its material as by the quality of its workmanship. A piece of furniture with character, ideal for a refined interior, a collection of antique furniture or a lover of fine European pieces.