Description

Elegant pair of drop-shaped mirrors from the neoclassical period. These mirrors feature a frame adorned with crystals set in almond shapes, beads, and floral motifs. The ornate crest displays a floral cluster decoration, also enhanced with crystals. The mirror glass is etched with a delightful floral design, depicting a bouquet of flowers with a prominently visible rose at the center. Originally conceived as appliques, the mirrors are distinguished by their modest size and are in excellent condition. Very elegant and refined, they can tastefully enhance any environment. Tuscan craftsmanship dating back to the late 18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 71 x 39.5 x 3.5cm
