Kabuto Samourai Helmet Edo Period

7 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Ô BOSHI shaped helmet and Hoshi-boshi type in iron with twenty lamellae, four of which are adorned with Shinodoré edged in gilt bronze, protruding rivets .A six-tiered Tehen Kanamono of various metals.The visor and Fukigaeshi adorned with buckskin with the KU-GE KAMON coat of arms in iron applied to the fukigaeshi with three black lacquered iron lamellas .Shikoro with three large levels laced blue and orange (faded).This high quality helmet can be dated circa 1820 in the style of helmets from the MUROMASHI period (1392-1572).The KU- GE family was part of the high nobility of ancient Japan.Note a tear in the inner fabric.A certificate from a member of the C.E.A expert syndicate will be provided to the buyer.Feel free to ask any questions.

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception

Antiquités

Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons

Argenteuil 95100