Description

A globe produced in the early 20th century by the German company Ernesto Shotte & Co. in Berlin and compiled by Dr. Giovanni Valeri. The globe is made of papier-mâché covered with strips of color-printed paper, and is supported by a graduated metal meridian and an ebonized wooden base. Although the globe was produced in Berlin, it was written entirely in Italian, as the target market was specifically Italy.

Dimensions: height 58 cm, diameter 30 cm
