Description

Charming, authentic English Davenport desk dating from the mid-19th century, circa 1850.Made from walnut, this small writing desk features the characteristic Davenport shape, with its sloping top and series of side drawers, typical of this iconic model of English Victorian furniture. The exterior showcases a beautiful walnut grain, enriched with subtle inlay details that underline the elegance of its structure.The lift-up top reveals a fitted interior with small drawers and compartments, originally designed for storing writing accessories and correspondence. The side drawers provide additional storage space, making this piece both practical and decorative. The leather top is a perfect complement to the desk.The original leather top shows visible wear, a natural
