Description

A solid carved ebony pyrogen...With a base and a bell for closure...All the small decorations are in brass and carved bone...The inner cylinder serves as a match storage in its center...And it makes a grater on the outside...Itself in gilded brass...From the late 19th century, circa 1860/70....From the UNITED KINGDOM...With some wear and tear...It's in its original condition...I added two brass cabochons...And a ball to make the grip...This is for me a rare object as it's a first...Three small bronze feet finish the base...Weight... 162 gr
