Description

A charming small gueridon, also known as a salon table or end table, in the Louis XV style, crafted from precious wood marquetry. A 20th-century piece, it features finely chased gilt bronze mounts. The tabletops are circular, adorned with rich, symmetrically arranged sunburst marquetry. A bronze gallery surrounds the edge of both tops. The upper top measures 41.5 cm in diameter, and the lower top measures 38.5 cm. This elegant gueridon rests on a tripod base joined by a stretcher shelf with the same marquetry decoration as the upper top, creating a beautiful visual unity. The slightly curved base terminates in small gilt bronze feet, ensuring perfect stability. Bronze mounts with floral and foliate motifs embellish the uprights, the apron, and the feet. It is in excellent overall
