Description

Superb decorative ensemble combining an authentic antique Basque makila, dated 1929, with a hanging oriental prayer tapestry.The makila, an emblematic piece from the Basque country, is distinguished here by its fine craftsmanship and antique character. It features a finely patinated horn handle, evoking the traditional shape of the Basque beret. The shaft, in scarified medlar wood, features typical craftsmanship, enhanced by braided leather sheathing offering an elegant and robust grip.The brass ferule, richly engraved with stylized motifs, bears the inscription "Eskual Herria" and the date 1929, lending the set a particularly sought-after authenticity and historical dimension.Shown here as a stand, the makila highlights an oriental prayer rug with mihrab decoration, in the taste of
